Protect your Personal Information

Find out how to protect your personal information to help avoid identity theft.

1. Shred documents with personal information
2. Use strong passwords for online accounts
3. Check your credit report for mistakes and signs of fraud
4. Lock your devices with a password or fingerprint
5. Be careful with what information you share online and over the phone

Scam

Bank of Cashton will NEVER ask for your password, PIN, or secure access code. If asked for any of this information, hang up and call us right away. Scammers and fraudsters are constantly coming up with new and more sophisticated ways to deceive you. While it may seem overwhelming at first, there are plenty of ways to protect

Retirement

Whether you're looking to set personal goals or ensure a comfortable retirement, financial planning is a great way to establish confidence in your future. Secure your tomorrow. Plan today. Call 608-654-5121 and ask for our account representative.

Don't rely on Social Security to cover your retirement.
Call or stop in today to make an appointment to set up and secure your future.

Memorial Day

The Bank of Cashton would like to salute the men and women in uniform, along with their families, for their service and sacrifice to help keep America safe. Thank you! We will be CLOSED for Memorial Day.
